

Please do not change NJ's Do-Not-Call regulations. Our home is much more peaceful without the phone ringing off the hook at dinner time. Although we still get some telemarketing calls, the number has gone down dramatically, from about 75 per week to about 10. Please don't let the telemarketers back into my house. I don't do business with them and I don't want them calling me.